People Profile

Kellie Moody is the highly accomplished, multi-talented musical director of The Freaks Club, and Snowlion Rep is both delighted and extremely lucky to have her working with us!

Kellie is a Maine native and a resident of Gorham. She is a senior at the University of Southern Maine pursuing a Bachelor of Arts in Music. Her outstanding collaborative piano and musical skills have made her indispensable to the vocal and instrumental programs at the USM School of Music. In addition to accompanying student performances in their degree recitals, juries, and competitions, she is heavily involved with the Musical Theatre program. She has had the privilege of working with the wonderful Ed Reichert as Assistant Music Director for The Musical of Musicals (The Musical!), The Drowsy Chaperone, and Assassins. She is very excited to serve this fall as Music Director for USM's production of Carrie.

With her flawless piano playing, astute direction of the singers, and complete command of the 3-piece band, Kellie is a great reason to come see The Freaks Club!

The Freaks Club in the press!

Today's Portland Press Herald had a terrific feature article by Offbeat writer Ray Routhier, who calls The Freaks Club "a musical comedy about bullying," which is just one of the themes in the rich story of this world premiere musical. You can read about it here:
