SPOTLIGHT

BOB PETTEE

Bob Pettee moved to Portland a little over three years ago. He and his wife Susan Neal had founded a theatre in the wilds of the Adirondack Mountains in upstate New York in 1980. As a part of the transition plan from that part of their life, they looked to take the next leg of their life journey in a city and by the sea. Portland was a clear contender. "We made some contacts with various theatre groups before re-location and Snowlion was one of the most interesting and receptive."

Since settling in Portland, Bob has been a part of Snowlion Rep's Playlab process, starred as DEAN ICON in the dynamic production of Moral & Political Lessons on 'Wyoming,' and helped with grant research. He is very pleased to have been asked to be a part of this next Snowlion Rep project. Bob notes that "Anything Helps God Bless promises to be a very interesting, provocative and important piece of theater." Snowlion Rep is thrilled and honored to have Bob as part of the AHGB team!

Greetings!

Creating what are called "collaborative theater" pieces is something we've been doing since the 1980s, with our New York theater company Third Step Theater, and in Los Angeles with Wordzworth Productions. Now YOU can be part of Snowlion Rep's latest collaborative theater piece! Read more about it below, and contribute your thoughts and feelings about panhandling to a piece all about Portland: ANYTHING HELPS GOD BLESS which premieres December 10 and 11. Save the date!

Sincerely,

Al D'Andrea, Artistic Director
Margit Ahlin, Producing Director

This unique collaborative theater piece will be presented at the Portland Ballet Studio Theater:

December 10 at 7:30 pm

December 11 at 2 pm

Both performances followed by a talk-back
