THE SECRET PRINCESS: The Naughty Medieval Musical Based on a Mark Twain Short Story

Apr 29-May 8

It's back on the schedule! In March of 2020, on the eve of our very first rehearsal, the pandemic forced us to step back, lock down, and sadly cancel our beautifully cast, ready-to-go world premiere, The Secret Princess.

But now it's back and better than ever! The story goes like this...In the duchy of Klugenstein in 1221, young Duke Conrad has a terrible secret – since birth, he has been disguised as a boy by his scheming mother, even though he – she! – is really a girl. Romantic complications ensue, of course, and the ultimate outcome for Conrad and those he/she loves depends on the audience, who must vote to decide not only Conrad's fate but also who gets the girl – or guy!

The Secret Princess, based on a Mark Twain short story, is a gender bending medieval romp with a surprise ending – guaranteed!

Shows at Meetinghouse Arts in Freeport:
April 29 through May 8, 2022
