Faust in the Anthropocene

MEET THE CAST of Faust in the Anthropocene performing in April 2025!

FAUST IN THE ANTHROPOCENE by Al D'Andrea will debut at The Hill Arts (formerly St. Lawrence Arts) on Munjoy Hill in Portland, opening April 4, 2025 and running through April 13. This groundbreaking and startlingly original new work features Wisdom Tales from the Land of Snows woven together with familiar characters from both the Faust legend and our own troubled times. Original music by Aaron Robinson will be heard throughout the show, including the rock anthem Kali Yuga (Dark Age).

This show is the perfect lead-in to EARTH DAY (April 22) as it traces the efforts of eco-activist ZEE and her compatriots to bring awareness and resistance to the earth-damaging behavior of billionaire FAUST, who has made a bargain with the embodiment of his ego, MARA, for limitless power. ZEE must find a way to reach FAUST and stop his destructive activities. Wandering yogi SHABKAR, through parables and teaching tales, offers a glimpse of the only way to find peace and sanity in a world gone mad.

An Iconic Location for Boothbay Summer Theater's production of RED!

RED

by John Logan

The original TOWN HALL for the town of Boothbay, located in the iconic Railway Village of Boothbay, will host our summer 2025 production of RED by John Logan, opening June 27 and playing through July 6, directed by Margit Ahlin.

In RED, abstract expressionist artist Mark Rothko (portrayed by Al D'Andrea) matches wits with his 'modern' apprentice Ken (portrayed by Tristan Rolfe), leading to a startling and explosive exploration of the meaning of art, emotion, and authenticity in a commercialized world. Rothko's most famous set of paintings, and whether they will be seen by the world or not, is the subject of this Tony winner for best play.

"A perfectly formed work with dialogue that crackles along, and it's blessed with two terrific performances that cement its position as a modern classic."

"Logan sends American abstract impressionist painter Mark Rothko into battle with his demons in this electrifying play of ideas, and the artist's howls are pure music."

Tickets are limited and likely to sell out. Join us in the beautiful TOWN HALL at Railway Village for an evening of great THEATER MADE IN MAINE! Click the ticket button below to get your tickets today!
