FIRST, A THANK YOU TO A SPECIAL MAN

Gary McCredie attended one of Snowlion Rep's very first acting classes back in 2010. From that day forward, Gary was a stalwart supporter of Snowlion Rep, making a much needed donation every year and attending shows faithfully. We are sad to report Gary passed away last year, but his generous spirit continues on. Gary left Snowlion Rep a bequest in his will, which we recently received, and we are so very grateful for the thought and care that went into that act. Thank you, Gary - it is because of people like you that we are able to continue to do what we do.

WHAT'S NEXT

Snowlion Rep is taking a step back to focus on our main mission - developing new works for the stage!

In development now:

The Real Don Juan: The Passion of Lord Byron tells the tale of the infamous poet who was heralded as a genius satirist of his society - that is, until his penchant for scandalous behavior led to his exile and ultimate demise. Mad, bad, and dangerous to know, Lord Byron must account for his treatment of those he proclaimed to love, or face the same fate as the legendary figure his most famous work was based on.

A Sense of Humor will explore what we find funny and what it reveals about our character, our nature, and everything about us, all in a non-traditional and highly theatrical style of drama - or is it comedy?

Snowlion Rep is also currently adapting its modular system of actor training into a program for schools to use for their young adults.

The 2024-2025 Season Featured
Two Unique and Highly Theatrical Productions!
FAUST IN THE ANTHROPOCENE and RED

Faust in the Anthropocene featured a cast of 14 and an iconic Western tale interwoven with wisdom tales from the East

Faust in the Anthropocene, which premiered in April at The Hill Arts in Portland, was a prescient exploration of the Faust legend contrasted with teaching tales from the Land of Snows, Tibet. When the two storylines intersected, the unfolding drama created a sometimes funny, often thought-provoking juxtaposition of eastern and western sensibilities that provided a fascinating look at our modern times. The spare yet colorful production was met with appreciative and enthusiastic audience response, and the cast of 14 provided stellar performances all around.

RED featured Al D'Andrea as Mark Rothko and Tristan Rolfe as Ken, two artists grappling with the meaning of artistic expression in a commercialized world

According to the Boothbay Register, the reviewer who attended the show on opening night found the performances in Red to be "brilliant, really." The reviewer continues, "For me, the intensity of the conversations and debates about art and color, what it means to be an artist, and the complexity of trying to balance time creating with making a living made for absorbing storylines in this 90-minute show." These are "two gifted actors," she goes on to say. "This is a show you must experience!" says the Boothbay Register.
